

General Information

All our English classes and programs are educationally based in the areas of environmental, cultural and

In next sections you can English as a Second Language \(ESL\) Program ,
Environment Programs
Culture Programs.

English as a Second Language Program (ESL)

Our ESL programs are geared towards success in English acquisition. As rural tourism grows in our

All our teachers are native English speakers, who possess a Bachelor of Education or are certified in the

Our ESL courses cover all four language aspects in order to ensure success in all areas of the language

Additionally, students will learn from a native English-speaking teacher. Through this interaction, they will

Classes operate Monday through Friday with five levels of classes:

Elementary Levels: Students range from toddlers to grade 6 and they ordinarily have regular instruction

Elementary Level I - for toddlers and first-graders. This is their first interaction with the English language

Elementary Level II – for students in the 2nd and 3rd grades. At this level, students already study E

Elementary Level III - for students grades 4 to 6.

Adult Levels: Student ages range from youths to retired adults. Their English knowledge rang

Adult Level I – for Beginner-level students. These classes are the first introduction of the lang

Adult Level II - Intermediate. Students have some knowledge of English. At the completion o

Adult Level III – Advanced classes will be available in the future.

Environment Programs

Our environmental education program is a core component of our curriculum and is imbedded in the te
We promote environmental consciousness in our classes by using a variety of teaching tools. Additional

Three Rs Now! Program : Recycling is an integral way of playing an active ro

Fun in the Forest Program This program consists of field trips into the surrounding cloud forest, nation

Leaf by Leaf to the Future Program This program consists of planting 2,000 native tree spe

Culture Programs

Our culture programs include a variety of workshops and classes for children and youth that promote cu

RecyclArt Program : This program explores using recycled and reused items to create works of art.

Murals and Mosaics Program : This program explores the use of paint and mosaics in public spaces, such as

Literacy through Photography Program : This program combines the use of writing and photography to explore different

Folk Dance Program : The majority of the students in the Elementary levels are part of the Folk Dance

